Heidelberg restructures Corporate Communications / Peter Caspar Hamel leaves the company

Heidelberg, Germany (ots) -

Heidelberger Druckmaschinen AG, Heidelberg, is to reorganize the Corporate Communications unit as part of the organizational reform that has been taking place for the last few months.

In particular, this will optimize cooperation between Communications and Marketing.

The aim is to streamline and tighten up internal processes and prevent duplication. The new structure of Corporate Communications will be set out in the next few days.

Peter Caspar Hamel, 44, Head of Corporate Communications, is to leave the company to pursue new goals.
