INVERTO expands management in Copenhagen office

Copenhagen (ots) -

INVERTO, the subsidiary of the Boston Consulting Group (BCG) specializing in procurement and supply chain management, is strengthening its management team in the Nordics, with Thomas Abel Brask joining as Managing Director in Copenhagen.

Thomas Abel Brask joins INVERTO with almost 20 years of industry and consulting experience. Thomas has particular expertise and experience in managing and supporting clients on strategic transformation of their procurement and supply chain and in strategic capability building within large corporations. "Our Copenhagen office is entering into its fifth year and the hire of Thomas Brask will perfectly complement the team that we have built in the office. His extensive procurement and supply chain expertise and hands-on experience from both industry and consulting, especially within Transportation & Logistics, Energy & Infrastructure, and Industrial Goods, will help drive our ambitious growth plans for the Nordic region" says Jan-Christoph Kischkewitz, Managing Director and People Chair at INVERTO.

Brask is enthusiastic about the opportunities that his new role will provide, commenting: "INVERTO's industry knowhow and deep expertise within procurement and supply chain management combined with the unique brand and market position of our parent company BCG, provides our clients with a very strong and market-proven value proposition. The recent impressive growth of INVERTO across Europe is remarkable and demonstrates that our clients clearly recognize and value this unique combination, especially during the current quite challenging and turbulent times for procurement and supply chain teams alike. I am extremely excited about this new challenge, and I look forward to working closely together with our talented team in Copenhagen and the Nordics to help shape and accelerate the future development and growth of our company".

The INVERTO team in Copenhagen is currently made up of more than 30 colleagues. Together with the Swedish team based in Stockholm, the consulting staff mainly supports clients from the Nordic countries but is also involved in international projects.
