MSD in Strategic collaboration with Briya for Innovative RWE data analysis projects

Tel Aviv, Israel (ots/PRNewswire) -

MSD, a leading multinational pharmaceutical company successfully completes a first-of-its-kind strategic collaboration with Briya, a medical data retrieval network. This groundbreaking partnership enabled innovative data analysis projects on three critical disease areas MSD plays a part in. Leveraging Briya's advanced data platform, the partnership facilitated comprehensive data access for these important data analysis projects.

By utilizing Briya's cutting-edge technology, MSD was able to access, standardize, and analyze real-world and accurate data from diverse sources in real time. This enabled the project to provide a more accurate and holistic view of the patient journey.

"We are happy to have partnered with Briya on this important initiative," said Udi Cohen, MSD Israel Commercial Operations Director. "Briya's data curation techniques shed new light on analyzing clinical data, including free text and medical notes, to generate insights about patients. I believe this will allow meaningful clinical insights to be obtained in the future."

Briya's platform ensured that all data was handled with the highest standards of security and privacy, complying with regulatory requirements and safeguarding patient information. This collaboration not only exemplifies the power of data in driving medical research but also underscores the importance of strategic partnerships in addressing healthcare challenges.

"Our collaboration with MSD marks a significant milestone in our mission to support innovative research through our robust data solutions," said David Lazerson, CEO and Co-founder of Briya. "We are proud to have enabled this RWE project and look forward to continuing to work together to improve patient care and outcomes."

This collaboration demonstrates that combining advanced data capabilities with pharmaceutical expertise can drive impactful healthcare outcomes. MSD and Briya are committed to ongoing innovation and partnership to further the advancement of medical science and improve patient lives.
